

NDPHA AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

The North Dakota Public Health Association presents awards annually to those individuals who have made remarkable contributions to public health in North Dakota.

NDPHA Awards

Public Health Worker of the Year: This award honors a current member of NDPHA for outstanding Public Health contributions or achievements this past year in North Dakota.

Public Health Team of the Year: This award recognizes a team that has worked collaboratively on a unique, creative, or simply outstanding public health effort, program, or goal in the past year. At least one team member must be a current member of NDPHA.

Outstanding Service Award: The award honors an individual who has exhibited continued excellence in the field of public health. The nominee may be a member of NDPHA or can be chosen from any lay or professional group. The major portion of achievement shall have been accomplished in North Dakota, or by a North Dakota native in another state or at the federal level. This individual shall have contributed to the actual promotion and advancement of public health.

Longevity Award: recognizes NDPHA members who have maintained continuous membership for 10, 20, and 30 years. Individuals are not required to be nominated for the longevity awards.

Awards Banquet

All awards will be presented at the 2019 Dakota Conference on Rural and Public Health which will be held June 11 -13, 2019 in Minot, ND at the Clarion Hotel & Convention Center. The awards banquet will be held on June 11, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. Individuals receiving awards will receive two complimentary banquet tickets.
